

CP Building Supply is looking to expand our inside sales team. Experience in the building & construction industry is required. Excellent communication skills and basic computer skills also are required. This is a full time position with full benefits. If you are an experienced professional in the lumber and building materials industry please forward your resume with cover letter to jaimy@cpbuildingsupply.com or apply within.